

Hi Peter,

So lovely to meet you all on Saturday, and I really enjoyed listening so uplifting and enjoyable, thank you for inviting me to stay and hear you all play and sing.

I write a blog weekly to help fellow survivors and their families, to boost moral really. Other people read too which is brilliant for me. I tell you this as this weeks blog is about the generosity of your ukelele Club and how enjoyable it was to be a part of Saturday afternoon, I've tried not to write anything you have written in your press release however. My website so you can take a look if you wish, is www.sasfreeman.com
I have used one of the photo's you kindly sent me, I hope you don't mind.

Best wishes,

Sas
